Blue Ridge Community College strives to make its campuses safe and welcoming learning environments. Pursuant to federal law, the College shall afford all sexual assault victims certain basic rights:

- I. Accuser and accused must have the same opportunity to have others present during disciplinary hearings;
- II. Both parties shall be informed of the outcome of any disciplinary proceeding;
- III. Sexual assault victims shall be informed of their options to notify law enforcement;
- IV. Sexual assault victims shall be notified of counseling services; and
- V. Sexual assault victims shall be notified of options for changing academic and living situations.
